AGRICULTURAL CENSUS

The 1945 agricultural census, under supervision of Hon. John Lumpkin, has been completed. A release from Washington shows a substantial reduction in the number of farms in the state since the farm census of 1940; the loss is given as 26,388. The farm acreage, however, shows an increase of 530,815 acres. This is due to shifting of ownership and much land being acquired by the government for public use. Many farms have increased in size due to the owners' acquiring more acres. The number of individual farms in the state decreased from 291,092 in 1940 to 264,704 in 1945. The release from the Department of Commerce gives the data on each county as to the number of farms and the acreage. Other information collected by the census will be released later.

THE SOUTH

Donald M. Nelson, former Chairman of the War Production Board, has written a very constructive article in The American Mercury and reproduced in condensed form in the July Reader's Digest. Mr. Nelson points out that just a few brief years ago the South was considered America's Number 1 economic problem; but today, he says, the South is America's Number 1 opportunity. Mr. Nelson quotes from a speech of Henry W. Grady in which the Georgia orator portrayed certain poverty of the South; but it should be remembered that later the immortal Henry Grady went out into the nation and with his tongue of fire, proclaimed the virtues and opportunities of the "New South" as they had never been told before, and his great speeches had much to do with bringing the South into its rightful rating among the states of the nation. Bring on your money and your thrift and you'll find opportunities that are extraordinary; and you'll find, too, that the South has fought her way to the front against great odds and today is leading the vanguard in the onward sweep of progress and development.

COTTON PICKING

News has reached the Capitol that a conference of farmers and planters, held with the Mississippi USDA War Board at Greenwood and presided over by L. I. Jones of the State Extension Service, reached the conclusion that cotton picking in the Delta counties this Fall should be paid for at the rate of $1.75 to $2.00 per hundred pounds. These figures will probably be adopted as the ceiling price.

BOND ELECTION

The State Industrial and Agricultural Commission has issued a certificate to the first supervisors district in Chickasaw County to hold an election on a proposed bond issue of $100,000 for installation of a garment plant at Houston. It is contemplated that the plant, if approved and installed, will employ from 300 to 400 people. This certificate is the tenth issued by the Commission which means that ten towns, or beats, will hold elections for establishment of industrial plants.

NEW OIL FIELD

Oil and Gas Director, H. M. Morse, reports a new oil field in the state, located in Jefferson County; the new well is about five miles north of Fayette. This gives the state fifteen individual oil fields. There is considerable wildcat drilling in the State, and other fields may be added soon.

STATE COMMANDER AMERICAN LEGION TENDERED LUNCHEON

On Monday August 27 the Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139 of Bay St. Louis was honored by a visit from the State Commander, Kirk Grantham of the Mississippi Department American Legion.

The post gave a luncheon in his honor which was well attended and also enjoyed immensely by all comrades present.

Coming to Bay St. Louis with the State Commander were Comrades E. E. Wedding, commander of the Joe Graham Post American Legion of Gulfport, Miss., and Judge J. U. Simmons, Southern Vice Commander of Gulfport Miss.

Commander Grantham gave a most interesting talk concerning the needs and problems of our returning servicemen and warned that they are our individual responsibility whether we had any of our men in service or not, and stated that there will be additional problems such as unemployment, adequate facilities for hospitalization, relocation of veterans and their families etc; which will confront us as never before, and the only way we can meet this challenge will be for everyone to serve unflinchingly and to do his or her part in this great task.

Commander Grantham is a native of Tupelo, Miss.

He was a guest of the Gulfport "40 and 8" Monday night at Gulfport, Miss.

The post takes this medium to thank everyone who helped entertain the Commander and also to the Management and staff of Hotel Reed and its efficient and capable manager Howard LeTissier, for the superb meal which all enjoyed.

The State Department advises that all veterans regardless if they are in service yet, or have been discharged, are eligible for membership in the legion; and in view of this fact, we again extend to all veterans who are honorably discharged, to join the local post of the Legion.

GOVERNOR BAILEY SPEAKS AT GULFSIDE

Governor Thomas L. Bailey addressed the Rural Life Council at Gulfside Waveland on Sunday afternoon. This Rural Life Council the first to be held at Gulfside was part of the four day program of Negro leaders of the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist church.

Governor Bailey said if he were preaching a sermon he would take as his text "I am come that you may have life and that you might have life more abundant." All Mississippians—all people who are honest and decent may have life abundant he said. They are privileged in an order of life to bring peace and comfort and the material side of life has much to do with the spiritual outlook. All through the ages the search of all people has been for a better way of life.—The Pilgrims, the Indians, the people who made the long trek across the country from east to west enduring great hardships was for a better way of life he continued.

"All Mississippians are country people," the governor said, "embued with the simple way of living, a simple faith and a willingness to strive toward a better life. General MacArthur leading Mississippi boys—all American boys and the homeland of the Japanese to teach them a better way of life."

Continuing the speaker said that for better churches and better schools, which are instruments to a better life, there must be a way of financing these agencies and that must come from the land. Give back to Mississippi the fertility it once had. Let us love the soil. We must appreciate our forests and other resources which are generous gifts from God for our use we must protect them. These resources he cited have been destroyed and now it is for the people to "gather up the fragments." "I am interested in the people because they will feed the world."

Governor Bailey referred to the disappearance of the smoke houses in Mississippi and the lack of the preservation of the yield of the ground and said the empty meal barrel was the cause of much that is wrong in the world. Back to the soil for Mississippians and there will be no problem for us. There is no problem that cannot be solved by a people sitting together in friendly conference.

"But," he said, anything that makes it hard for the people is wrong. The world owes the individual nothing but a chance and closed by saying "Trust in God and have no fear."

Governor Bailey was introduced by Rev. R. N. Brook who presided at the assembly and who said that he was not introducing the speaker as the governor but as a churchman—a man who looks at life from the standpoint of the Christian church.

Governor Bailey is state president of the Mississippi Rural Life Council and Rev. James W. Sells is executive secretary. The latter was in attendance at the four-day assembly and was one of the instructors.

There was a splendid gathering of the Negro group and several sacred numbers were given by them. They sang without the piano the never old "Inch' Along" which was highly appreciated. Corporal Hoyt sang a solo.

Bishop Jones, the founder of Gulfside was present and had a short message to bring to the assembly.

Bishop T. Long Decell preached at the 11 o'clock hour and talked on Race Relation.

Among those seen from Bay St. Louis were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Miss May H. Edwards, R. L. Genin, John Egloff, Alvin Genin and Gerald V. Price.

Mrs. Schaff presided and explained briefly that the major object of the meeting was the naming of a county-wide advisory board to take over the further development of the project. She told what steps had been taken by the club and called on Mrs. Kenneth Knoblock, chairman of the club's committee on building sites, for a report.

Mrs. J. B. Goldman county chairman of the Red Cross Water Safety Program in a few remarks outlined the great need of a swimming pool for the teaching of swimming and cited the loss of lives in World War 11 of men who could not swim.

It was suggested that the sponsors have something more definite and concrete as to size and type of building, plans for financing it and approximate amount they expected to spend. It was further suggested before a permanent board be named, temporary officers be named. Those elected were Howard W. LeTissier, chairman, Mrs. C. C. McDonald, vice chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Knoblock, secretary; Mrs. E. J. Arceneaux, treasurer.

TAG DAY FOR LIBRARY SUCCESS

The Bay Saint Louis-Hancock County Library Board and the librarians are more than pleased at the splendid results of the Tag Day on Saturday, August 25.

Banked to date is 406.28 and pledges $45.00, leaving only $48.72 under the goal of $500.00 which was set. However, all concerned feel confident that this small amount will be forthcoming because though it was not the purpose of the girls to miss anyone yet it may have been done and we are quite sure that everyone wants to contribute to this cause.

This is to be the donation of the people for one year and is to be used for the purchase of books only and it is only a surety that the balance to bring the amount up to $500.00 will be given.

Those who are rightly called friends of the library and who have so unflinchingly served as a board and the librarians are deeply grateful to the people for their splendid cooperation and help and there are no words to express appreciation to the boys and girls who worked so hard on Saturday to see that the collections came in and they turned in more than $175.00.

The girls working the Bay St. Louis territory were Anne Weston, Barbara Dresher, Barbara Ann Trastour, Rosemary Rollins, Patricia Gex, Jackie Quintini, Jeanne Arceneaux, Marjorie Horlock, Hope Crasto, Flo Drumm, Jane Ann Martin, Joan Koch, Nannette Arceneaux, Noeli Dick, Marilou Bourgeois, Bee Favre, Gerry Haas, Betty Benvenuti, Geraldine Middleton, Betty Jane Vassalli, and the two boys Dale Favre and Andre Arceneaux. Dickie Curran and Charles Kiefer took over the two theatres on Saturday night and that helped swell the fund.

Working at Waveland were Beverly Glass, Dorothy Rand, Jean Robin, Bill Lecorgne and Jack Lecorgne and this netted a nice sum too.

It is hoped that we will be able to report next week that the goal set $500.00 will be made. We will announce from time to time the new books purchased.

Spreads News of War's End

When news of Japan's surrender was flashed to all of the people of the United States as well as over the whole world many took it with shouts of joy, others took it with tears and others with prayers of thankfulness but one of our own citizens had the distinction of transferring the news to a troop train late tracked almost at her door. This was Mrs. Claude Monti who rushed to the train to tell the boys and she told them that she had been praying for them and for the day when there would be a cessation of hostilities. The service men jumped from the train and some gave vent to their feelings in loud hurrahs and others in tears but all clamoring around Mrs. Monti had asking her for her name and address and a few days later she was the recipient of a box of beautiful roses.

GET AN EDUCATION

WITH the advent of September, comes the opening of the schools in the City of Bay St. Louis. In a few days we will see the boys and girls of Bay St. Louis and the surrounding territory making their way back and forth to our institutions of learning.

A move has been sponsored by the Childrens Bureau of the Labor Department and the Office of Education to increase enrollment of high school students this fall. There was a very high decline during the period of the war in high school attendance, due no doubt, to boys going into service, but much of it was attributed to boys and girls taking war time jobs.

In Bay St. Louis, a City with a population of less than 5000 people, we have three accredited high schools, St. Stanislaus, St. Joseph's Academy and Bay High School. Every opportunity for an education is afforded to the children of our community. An opportunity that should be accepted by our boys and girls. It should not be necessary to urge them to continue their education and if possible to attend college. The benefits of a thorough education are, or should be, generally appreciated. Students should, unless economic difficulties make it necessary, forego the temptation of ready cash in order to be better prepared for the longer battle of life.

There is an economic argument for every individual securing as much education as possible, but this should not be the only reason for us to seek more knowledge. In addition to the pecuniary reward that almost inevitably follows, we receive a greater dividend in the fullness and richness that attend a cultivated mind.

Veterans' Rights and Privileges in Purchasing Government Property

Jackson Miss.—Chairmen and all local selective service boards, and reemployment committees in all Mississippi communities have been advised on veterans' rights and privileges in purchasing surplus government property through the Smaller War Plants Corporation, it was announced today by Colonel L. W. Long, state director of selective service.

Surplus property is available through SWPC with a veterans' preference of not more than $2500.

To secure such property the veteran must have served in active military or naval service on or after 16 September 1940 and have a discharge or release under honorable conditions. Colonel Long pointed out.

Surplus government property cannot be purchased for resale and regulations governing SWPC have been written to prevent sale of such property to speculators. Property purchased under this arrangement must be used in the "veteran's own small business or professional enterprise, or his own small agricultural enterprise."

If more than one veteran desires to enter the same business each ex-serviceman may apply for the $2500 limit. Regulations also provide that veterans must control 50 per cent of the invested capital in any business enterprise, including non-veterans when applying for surplus government property thru SWPC.

Veterans desiring to purchase government property should contact the Smaller War Plants Corporation Tower Building, Jackson Miss. When they apply for property to be used in an agricultural enterprise, the case must be certified by the County AAA Committee, and the necessary forms may be secured from the County Agent.

At the present time blank forms used in applying for property desired in a business enterprise are available only through the SWPC office at Jackson.

However, in the very near future such forms will be available at all local board offices of the selective service system in Mississippi.

How women and girls
may get wanted relief
from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time" it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

YOU TAKE IT FROM HERE, BILL

Bill is just a name that stands for the 1,129 employees of the United Companies who are serving in the nation's armed forces. And scenes like the one above are being enacted in our plants and offices, from Mississippi to the Florida Coast. They will go on being enacted, until the last employee has returned....

Innocently, these home-coming ex-service men and women are putting the test to American industry. It is a test that will show whether our free enterprise system can provide the returnees with jobs... not jobs made by releasing other employees who have carried on on the home front, but additional jobs!

We believe that American industry will pass that test. We know that we will!

"THOSE ENDEARING YOUNG CHARMS" AT A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Robert Young and Laraine Day Co-Star in a Sparkling Story of a Girl Matching Her Wits With a Glamor Boy

Sparkling romantic comedy is achieved in "Those Endearing Young Charms" which stars Robert Young and Laraine Day in the story of a modern girl who steals her friend's girl only to be thoroughly tamed by the time she gets through with him. Robert Young is the dashing Air Corps Lieutenant Hank Bravard. Laraine Day is the girl, Helen Travis, who works in a department store, Bill Williams is the likable though naive young Air Corps mechanic, Jerry, who unwisely brings the two together, with disastrous results to his own romantic interests. Ann Harding has the role of Helen's mother, and guides her lovely daughter through the maze of amusing complications that ensue when Hank seeks to add Helen to his long list of romances and sweeps the girl completely off her feet.

How Hank is cured forever of his romantic phantasies, and (nearly) everybody lives happily ever after, forms the climax of this engaging theme.

Marc Cramer, Larry Tierley, Anne Jeffreys and Glenn Vernon round out the supporting cast of this production by Bert Granet which was made under the supervision of Sid Rogell. Lewis Allen, known favorably for his "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," directed, and Jerome Chodorov wrote the screenplay from his brother Edward's stage play.

Gay story sparkling dialogue and fine performances from a competent cast are said to make this RKO Radio offering one of the outstanding romantic comedies of the season.

ORTE THEATRE
SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"GENTLE ANNIE"James Craig, Donna Reed
With Marjorie Main

For those who like their movies full of action and outdoor adventure, M-G-M's "Gentle Annie" is the perfect dish.

Featuring James Craig, Donna Reed and Marjorie Main, this is a swashbuckling story of the Oklahoma Territory at the turn of the century with Craig as a U. S. Marshal who moves into the small, untamed town to track down a band of train robbers.

Craig, posing as a hobo, gets kicked off a train at this little town and finds himself aided by two men who it turns out, are the very ones suspected of the robbery. From that point, as the boys and their mother the Gentle Annie of the title, give him shelter, a series of tense and unexpected developments provide a fast-moving tale with gunplay, a pretty girl who is stranded, a shady sheriff and a scorched piece of U. S. currency all figuring in the story.

Craig does a top-notch job as the marshal who finds himself tracking down his benefactors, and Miss Reed is lovely and a fine actress as a stranded young lady who winds up with Craig as guests of Gentle Annie and her sons.

Marjorie Main provides her usual sharp characterization and Henry Morgan and Paul Langton, as her sons are refreshing new cinema personalities from whom more will be heard. Reliable Barton MacLane is the sheriff and Morris Ankrum is his chief aide. All concerned do excellent jobs.

"Gentle Annie" is based on Mac-

Kinley Kantor's popular novel of the same name. Adapted for the screen by Lawrence Hazard, it is a rattling good adventure film which is grand entertainment all the way.

In This Hour of ## TRIUMPH

Behind us lie 3½ years of deadly struggle in which, with God's help, we have prevailed.

So, today, we celebrate a victory.

After the celebration, what lies ahead?

For most of us, the outlook is a bright one. If we will simply use the brains, the will, the energy, the enterprise...the materials and resources...with which we won our war, we can't fail to win the peace and to make this the richest, happiest land the world has known.

For most of us, the years ahead are bright with promise. But for others of us — and, ironically enough, their part in bringing victory was a major one — the years to come must bear a different look.

In America today are hundreds of thousands of injured men. Men with neatly pinned up sleeves and trousers. Blinded men. Men with clever iron hooks instead of hands. Worst of all, men with hurt and darkened minds.

These men need our help. Helping them will cost a great deal of money. We can help them by buying Victory Bonds.

Far away from America today are millions of Americans. As we would be, they're on fire to get back—to their wives, to the children some of them have never seen, to their jobs.

These men need our help. Helping them will cost a great deal of money. And we can help them best by buying Victory Bonds.

This is our day of triumph. But it's theirs too—the injured men, the men who are still far away.

Let's not forget them, in our just rejoicing. And the one way we can help most to care for our wounded...to bring our veterans home...to give them a fresh start in the country they fought for...to care for the families of those who died before the Victory was won...is simply this:

Buy all the Bonds you can. Keep all the Bonds you buy.

HOW IS MY WIFE MAKING OUT?

We owe a debt to this man. Adding a worry is not the way to show our gratitude. The security of his wife and family depends upon us. Our job on the home front is to heed ceiling prices. Then we won't over buy and cause an increase in prices. We'll check the black market and make it easier for servicemen's wives and others with low, fixed incomes.

Freedom of Action
Comes With a Savings Account

The knowledge that you have "money in the bank" is a source of comfort and convenience. No matter what your aim in life, money will help you achieve it. There's peace of mind, too, in knowing that an emergency will not leave you in debt when you have a savings account to fall back on. Your weekly earnings need not be high; even a small amount, deposited in a savings account regularly will provide a nest egg for you. As little as a dollar will open your account with us today.
